INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO THE NAVY RESERVE FORCE!

Thank you for choosing to serve your nation in the Navy Reserves.

This “Workbook For The New Navy Reserve Sailor” provides information for use by all new members of the Navy Reserve Force. Its contents are designed to help you navigate your transition into the Reserve Force and guide you as you begin your Reserve career. This document should be used in conjunction with the associated onboarding media and other products that can be found at the following website:

<https://www.navyreserve.navy.mil/Resources/Reserve-Sailor-Integration>

In addition to this document, Sailors are encouraged to reference THE NAVY RESERVIST Magazine, known simply as “TNR.” This publication series includes an annual Almanac edition that provides a wide range of information on pay, administrative essentials, readiness, career development and other resources available to the Reserve Force. This publication provided in hardcopy by direct mail and at your NRC, and its contents can also be found at the following website:

<https://www.navyreserve.navy.mil/Resources/TNR -Almanac-Online>

PREPARE FOR YOUR FIRST DRILL WEEKEND

Your assigned Navy Reserve Center will contact you upon receipt of your orders to coordinate with you for your check-in date. They will also send you a Welcome Aboard package that will provide contact information, business hours, and instructions to access the facility.

If you have not received a Welcome Aboard package from the NRC within a few days of receiving your orders, then you should initiate contact with the command. Use this interactive map to find the Navy Reserve Center nearest to your residence and establish first contact: <https://www.mynrh.navy.mil/#/map>

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW FROM YOUR NRC

- The address and directions to the facility
- Base/facility access requirements (For instance, a Common Access Card (CAC), gate closures or other traffic controls)
- Weather contingency plans
- How to request Berthing (if you live more than 50 miles from the command)
- How to sign up for Meals
- Required documents and other items to bring

NRC WELCOME ABOARD PACKAGE

As part of your initial contact with the Navy Reserve Center staff, you will receive a Welcome Aboard Package that will provide basic information about the facility including:

- Facility address and entry instructions
- Command directory
- Drill Schedule
- Hours of operation
- Instructions for Meals and Berthing
- Holiday schedule
- Weather contingency plan
- Website address

NRC WEBSITE ADDRESS

All NRC command websites are hosted on the My Navy Reserve Homeport website: <https://www.mynrh.navy.mil/> (CAC Required)

From the MYNRH main page, the Sailor can either search for the command in the search bar or navigate to the individual command via the “COMMAND” drop-down menu at the top of the page, followed by “REGIONS” to select the appropriate, and then the name of the NRC. Each NRC website provides a wealth of information specific to the command.

THE PLAN OF THE MONTH (POM)

The Plan of the Month (POM) is required reading for all personnel. The POM is the primary means for the NRC staff to communicate with the individual Sailor and contains the latest information about Navy Reserve requirements, policies, etc.

COMMON ACCESS CARD (CAC)

Ensure that your CAC is in your possession and up to date. Expired CACs should be replaced at the nearest RAPIDS facility (<https://idco.dmdc.osd.mil/idco/>). If you do not possess a current CAC and are unable to renew it for any reason, immediately notify your NRC sponsor for assistance. This may lead to additional coordination if the NRC is located on a military installation and a CAC are required for base access.

UNIFORM AND GROOMING STANDARDS

- If you have issued uniforms, wear your appropriate Service uniform for check-in. Instructions for wear can be found at this website:
<https://www.mynavyhr.navy.mil/References/US-Navy-Uniforms/Uniform-Regulations/Chapter-3/>
- If you do not have uniforms, then dress in business casual attire, but adhere to all other grooming standards.
- To be provided uniforms, you must be in a drill status in pay grades E1 to E6.
- Navy grooming standards can be found at this website:
<https://www.mynavyhr.navy.mil/References/US-Navy-Uniforms/Uniform-Regulations/Chapter-2/>

BERTHING

Reservists (Officer and Enlisted) who reside more than 50 miles away are eligible for government-funded berthing the night prior to completion of two IDT periods the next day. (Example: To be eligible for berthing Friday night, you must complete two IDT sessions on Saturday.)

MEALS

Enlisted Sailors performing two drills are eligible to receive government-funded subsistence. Members receiving subsistence must sign meal rosters. Additionally enlisted Sailors utilizing contract berthing are authorized breakfast and dinner. Officers are responsible for their own meals.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Your first drill weekend is all about getting you checked-in with the appropriate systems. If you are able to speak with your command sponsor beforehand, ask which documents you need to bring. When in doubt, bring it! At a minimum, you should carry:

- Navy medical and dental records
- Bank account information for direct deposit establishment
- For DEERS and NAVPERS 1070/602, Bring the following
 - Marriage certificates
 - Divorce decrees
 - Dependents' birth certificates / adoption paperwork

THE NAVY RESERVE ONBOARDING PORTALS

The links below will launch Onboarding websites with additional information to guide you through your first drill weekends.

- No CAC Required: <http://www.navyreserve.navy.mil/Resources/Reserve-Sailor-Integration/>
- CAC Required: <http://www...> (Future KM Portal)

THE NAVY RESERVIST (TNR) MAGAZINE

Navigate to this year's TNR Almanac to hear from the Chief of Navy Reserve and the Navy Reserve Force Master Chief, learn acronyms and terms, and expand your overall reserve knowledge before your first drill weekend.

- Annual Almanac: <https://www.navyreserve.navy.mil/TNR-Almanac-Online/>

ACCESSION PROGRAMS

Some accession programs into the Navy Reserve have additional requirements and times lines for completions before the Sailor can be fully accepted into the Navy Reserve. Review the appropriate reference if you are a member of one of these accession programs:

KEYS FOR SUCCESS

Whether you are new to the Navy (e.g., direct accession) or new to the Reserves (e.g., prior active duty), you will quickly recognize that the demands of the Navy Reserves can become overwhelming. However, a few key principles will significantly reduce frustration or stress and will greatly help ensure your success in the Navy Reserves:

COMMUNICATION

One of the biggest (and unnecessary) pitfalls faced by Reservists is the failure to communicate. This primarily occurs two ways:

FAILURE TO COMMUNICATE. Your chain of command should ALWAYS know about information that will influence your Navy Reserve readiness or ability to participate in scheduled drills or other orders. This includes, for example, major life events that may also affect your dependents, relocations, changes in your civilian career, changes in your health that require dedicated medical attention or changes in prescriptions. It is your responsibility to keep your unit leadership informed.

FAILURE TO COMPLY. Official correspondence will be sent to your contact information on file in NSIPS. It is the Reservist's responsibility to update address information annually or as soon as it changes. A Sailor's failure to receive or to respond to Official Mail and failure to keep the Unit CO or the NRC advised of the current home address WILL NOT prevent administrative processing." (MILPERSMAN 1910-158.)

New Accessions. If you are new to the Navy, you WILL BE overwhelmed by the Reserve requirements, Navy customs, and terminology. Take it slow and ask questions.

Prior Active Duty Personnel. Those with prior active duty service initially struggle in the Reserves due to a false sense of comfort. You have been around the Navy, you know the language, and you are comfortable wearing the uniform. However, serving in the Reserves is completely different from serving on active duty and has its own unique terminologies, requirements, and demands. Don't get over-confident or you will struggle. Find a mentor in your unit who can help guide you as you progress.

KNOW AND MEET REQUIREMENTS

Simply stated, you must know the requirements in order to fulfill them. It is each member's responsibility to read all published requirement or directive. This publication consolidates information from multiple instructions and lessons learned into a single quick reference document. Link to official instructions, directives and manuals are included in this document so that you can read about that topic in detail.

PROACTIVELY BALANCE COMPETING PRIORITIES

As a Reservist, you face a multitude of competing priorities in your life:

- 1) Your family
- 2) Your personal life
- 3) Your civilian job/career
- 4) Your educational pursuits
- 5) Your Navy Reserve career

You will quickly discover that each of these place demands upon your time and energy and waiting until the last minute (on any of these priorities) will likely yield an impact on another priority. Proper prior planning, however, has been proven to mitigate many conflicts and thus greatly reduce your stressors. You are not alone in this effort. The Navy Reserve offers many benefits and programs for the individual Sailor and his or her dependents to utilize which are described in greater detail later in this document.

YOUR FIRST DRILL WEEKEND

Proceed to your assigned Navy Reserve Center and plan to arrive at the assigned location to muster on time. The purpose of this drill weekend is to establish your presence in the Navy Reserve systems so that you may be paid for your activities and properly guided through your individual mobilization and warfighting readiness requirements.

Your command sponsor should muster you at the designated place and time. Every command has a standard check-in sheet that covers all offices, systems and programs that everyone must accomplish upon arrival. However, due to the time and resources constraints typical of a drill weekend, the sponsor will guide you through the most critical check-in items that must be completed on the first drill weekend. Once those critical items have been completed, additional check-in tasks may be executed, or you can be released to meet your local unit leadership.

INDOCTRINATION

Indoctrination (INDOC) occurs at least once a quarter at every NRCs. It may fall on the day you check-in, or not be planned for another couple months.

INDOC is mandatory for all newly reported SELRES to attend INDOC within 90 days of their check-in. This includes members who are new to the Navy Reserves as well as those who are transferring from another NRC. INDOC ensures proper check-in and awareness of NRC and Reserve policies and lays the foundation and expectations for all SELRES in addition to providing invaluable information and resources. Plan for this event accordingly.

In addition to the introductory briefs, Sailors are afforded the opportunity to receive other mandatory trainings that are due throughout the year. It is critical for all new Sailors to attend their command's INDOC course.

YOUR UNIT LEADERSHIP

This drill weekend is also your first impression with your unit leadership. Your orders will have several units listed and as a result you will meet several leadership teams responsible for different aspects of your life as a Reservist.

Your Navy Reserve Center leadership is responsible for your administrative readiness.

Your Training Reserve Unit (TRUIC) is responsible for your mobilization readiness (similar to administrative readiness). It is a part of your administrative chain of command and works in conjunction with your NRC. You will perform regular drills (IDT's- Inactive Duty for Training) with this unit.

Your Unit Mobilization Unit (UMUIC) is responsible for your warfighting readiness and the performance of your duties in line with your rate or designator. You will perform your Annual Training (AT) with this unit.

A UIC is a unit's identification code. TRUIC stands for Training Reserve Unit Identification Code. UMUIC stands for Unit Mobilization Unit Identification Code. These terms are associated with a number to identify a particular unit.

A "Locally Assigned Sailor" is one who's TRUIC and UMUIC are the same.

Typically, a Sailor is "Cross-Assigned." This means your TRUIC does not match your UMUIC. Example: Your UMUIC, Unit X, drills in San Diego but you live in Los Angeles, Unit Y. Rather than going to San Diego every month, you complete drills at NRC LA with your TRUIC, Unit Y. In this case, Unit Y administers your IDT periods; Unit X administers/controls your AT.

If you have not yet been assigned a unit, then you are considered In Assignment Process (IAP). Individuals in IAP status are required to actively pursue billets via JO Apply or My Navy Assignment (MNA). Failure to actively search for billets will result in direct manning of billet assignment.

NRC OFFICE ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

NRC staff levels vary depending upon the number of Reservists supported. The following roles exist at all NRCs, but may be supported by a single NRC staff member or an independent department of many staff members depending on the NRC. This is not a total list of the department's duties, but will ensure you know where to go to address any described issues.

- Command Career Counselor: Responsible for managing the Navy Enlisted Retention and Career Development Program and serves as the critical link between an individual Sailor, his or her command, and supporting Navy organizations, including Navy Personnel Command (NPC).
- Command Services/Administration: Responsible for maintaining Service Records, Evaluations, Awards, and other services.
- Reserve Pay: Responsible for muster and adjudication of the Sailor's drills in the Enhanced Drill Management (EDM) module of the Navy Standard Integrated Personnel System (NSIPS) website.
- Manpower: Responsible for Officer and Enlisted billet management, including gains and losses.
- Mobilization: Responsible for initial notification and processing of reservists for mobilization, de-mobilization, and ADSW.
- Supply: Responsible for providing berthing, meals and uniforms to applicable Sailors.
- Medical: Manages the Sailor's medical and dental records and tracks medical readiness.
- Operations / Travel: Assists the Sailor in their execution of Annual Training (AT)/Active Duty for Training (ADT)/Inactive Duty for Training Travel (IDTT) orders through NROWS, management of the Government Travel Charge Card (GTCC) program, and the tracking and processing the Sailor's travel claims.
- Training: Responsible for managing the Sailor's training including the annually directed General Military Training (GMT) and school requirements assisting the Sailor in gaining quotas to other required courses.

- Information Technology: Managed the Sailor's NMCI access.
- Security Manager: Assists the Sailor in the requirements to gain and maintain their security clearance.

DRILL ADJUDICATION AND PAY

All drills shall be scheduled via EDM and be adjudicated within three (3) working days as of completion as one of the following:

Satisfactory: Sailor present for scheduled drill period and required activities completed

Authorized Absence(AA): Sailor not present for scheduled drill period, but was given prior approval for this absence. AA examples include demobilization, on other orders (AT/AD/ADSW), or special circumstances approved by the command.

Unexcused Absence(UA): Sailor was not mustered for scheduled drill period.

Unsatisfactory (AU): Sailor present for scheduled drill period, but did not satisfactorily complete required activities.

Sailors who receive nine (9) UAs, AUs, or combination thereof, will be processed for administrative separation (ADSEP) for failure to meet Satisfactory Participation as a Navy Reservist.

MEDICAL READINESS

The Reserve Sailors who complete medical requirements on time each year are the ones who stop by and talk with their medical representatives on a regular basis. Ongoing conversation about upcoming requirements allow Sailors to be ahead of deficiency lists on mandatory tasks such as immunizations, blood draws, etc. The top two requirements are to complete your annual Electronic Periodic Health Assessment (ePHA) and annual dental exam.

Temporarily Not Physically Qualified (TNPQ): This status is assigned to Sailors who have an illness or injury of a limited duration (6 months or less) and are determined by the Medical department to fully recover. This status allows members to maintain their billet within their unit during their recovery period.

Medical Retention Review (MRR): This status is assigned to Sailors to provide disposition of an illness or injury that will affect the ability of the Sailor to perform within the Navy Reserve.

Sailors with overdue medical requirements are not physically qualified to perform Annual Training (AT), Active Duty training (ADT) or Active Duty for Special Work (ADSW). These Sailor's orders will be put in a hard hold status until ALL medical/dental readiness components have been completed and the Sailor is determined to be medically ready.

DEPENDENT DATA

Family Care Plan: This policy is relevant for Navy Reservists who are single sponsors or dual military couples that have custodial responsibility for family members or other dependents. You have the responsibility to ensure family members are cared for during deployments, mobilizations and temporary Reserve duty. The Dependent Care Plan requires that you designate one or more caregivers for your family members.

NAVPERS 1070/602, commonly referred to as a “Page 2” or REDDA, is formally titled the “Dependency Application/Record of Emergency Data”. This is an official document that verifies dependent information (in order to gain dependent eligibility entitlements) and serves as an emergency point of contact document.

NAVY DRUG POLICY

Navy’s policy on drug use is simple: ZERO TOLERANCE. This policy extends to illicit/illegal drugs as well as improper usage of prescription medications. Every command shall test a minimum of fifteen percent of all assigned personnel monthly. Every command shall conduct a unit sweep of all personnel assigned twice per year.

YOUR SECOND DRILL WEEKEND

Any Critical Administrative Check-In Items from the First Drill Weekend which were not completed need to be addressed before any others.

This drill weekend is about setting your career on its best trajectory. You will meet with several NRC offices to discuss your career opportunities and benefit entitlements.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT BOARDS

Career Development Boards (CDB) provide an excellent opportunity to mentor enlisted Sailors while also identifying personnel record discrepancies or items that hinder advancement. These sessions also identify present and future career requirements from their Learning and Development Roadmap (LaDR) and Enlisted Learning and Development Continuum, and allow the Sailor to plan to accommodate those commitments. This first CDB should also include the use of the Onboarding Career Development Board, 18 Month Plan, and 5 Year Career worksheets.

SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS

Sailors have formal school requirements at different periods of their career. Some Sailors also have immediate school requirements as part of their accession program. Review the appropriate reference if you are a member of one of these accession programs:

ENLISTED ADVANCEMENT EXAMS

Exams are conducted in February and August. It is imperative that you be available to take your exam on the assigned day and should not create a schedule conflict with other orders or obligations.

Each member must serve a required amount of time in each pay grade, these are:

- E1 to E2 9 months
- E2 to E3 9 months
- E3 to E4 6 months
- E4 to E5 12 months
- E5 to E6 36 months
- E6 to E7 36 months
- E7 to E8 36 months
- E8 to E9 36 months

TIME IN RATE DATES: New affiliates to the Naval Reserve start their time in rate from the date of enlistment. If a member has prior service and has been separated for less than 12 months, their time in rate will be the member's original time in rate date.

ADVANCEMENT REQUIREMENTS: Ask your Unit Education Service Officer or Unit Career Counselor what requirements you need, or check your bibliography for advancement.

PROFESSIONAL MILITARY KNOWLEDGE ELIGIBILITY EXAMS (PMK-EE): The Professional Military Knowledge (PMK) section of the Navy Wide Advancement Exams (NWAE) is a stand-alone, once-per-paygrade electronically-delivered eligibility exam, currently accessible via My Navy Portal (MNP): <https://my.navy.mil/>

Or Navy e-Learning (NeL):

https://learning.nel.navy.mil/ELIAASv2p/?utm_source=mnppublic

A PMK-EE mobile application is also available via the App Locker:

https://www.applocker.navy.mil/?utm_source=mnppublic#!/apps

NMCI ACCESS

The following must be completed to obtain and maintain an active NMCI NIPR account:

- NMCI USER AGREEMENT FORM OPNAV 5239/14 (System Authorization Access Request - SAAR)
- Annual Cyber Awareness Training Certificate
- Navy Annual Privacy Training Certificate

Once completed, the packet will be submitted for account generation. The SAAR is then kept on file for any future creations of accounts for the member. Additional requirements exist for those requiring access to the SIPR network.

SECURITY CLEARANCE

Security clearances require completion of an application. An update is required every five years for Top-Secret clearance and every 10 years for Secret clearance. This process is lengthy and should be initiated and completed as soon as possible in order to avoid delays and/or conflicts that could impact your assignment.

The NRC Security Manager or Assistant Security Manager initiates the security clearance process by authorizing an individual to complete an e-QIP (Electronic Questionnaires for Investigations Processing). Once initiated, Sailors are directed to log in immediately to eQIP website at www.opm.gov/e-qip/, start application with contact info, and complete all aspects of the application within 30 days.

Once the e-QIP application is submitted, the application will be forwarded to CNRFC (via RCC SE) for eventual transfer to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Once OPM receives the application packet, the investigation is considered “open.” During the open investigation, OPM investigators will conduct interviews and background checks. Depending on the application, OPM may request additional information — such as financial records, tax records, etc. Failure to respond to OPM requests may result in denial or revocation of security clearances.

Failure to obtain a clearance: Denial or revocation of a security clearance, or failure to provide requested documentation necessary for investigation completion, will result in disciplinary action, ranging from non-compliance to Administrative Separation (ADSEP).

YOUR THIRD DRILL WEEKEND

Any Critical Administrative Check-In Items from the First Drill Weekend which were not completed need to be addressed before any others.

This drill weekend will prepare you to travel for your first Annual Training event and close out any lingering administrative actions.

TRAVEL ORDERS

Travel orders are initiated through the Navy Reserves Order Writing System (NROWS):

<https://nrows.dc3n.navy.mil/nrows/secure/login.jsp>

The process behind NROWS begins with a requirement being built for the Sailor to then write orders against. The Sailor will complete early steps to determine the travel costs before the orders are routed through the later stages, funded, approved, and finally published.

Travel itinerary and reservations are completed through Defense Travel System (DTS):

<https://www.travel.dod.mil/>

Once orders are published and the Sailor's travel is authorized and funded, they can create their travel itinerary in DTS. This system allows the Sailor to book commercial air, lodging, and set per diem rates for their travel while on orders. The travel is paid for by the Sailor's GTCC. Once the orders have been completed, the Sailor must complete a travel claim in DTS. Failure to do so risks losing entitlements and travel reimbursement.

The Joint Travel Regulations detail many specific regulations related to government funded travel: <https://www.travel.dod.mil/Policy-Regulations/Joint-Travel-Regulations/>

GOVERNMENT TRAVEL CREDIT CARD (GTCC)

Department of Defense policy directs that the Government Travel Charge Card (GTCC) will be used as the primary payment method for all costs related to official government travel. Each Sailor is required to have a GTCC prior to travel. To obtain a GTCC, members must complete GTCC training and sign a Page 13.

Do NOT abuse or misuse your GTCC! Abusing or misusing your GTCC will result in disciplinary action — potentially including UCMJ Article 92 processing, Non-Judicial Punishment (NJP), or Administrative Separation (ADSEP).

Examples of abuse/misuse include (but are not limited to):

- Improper, fraudulent, abusive, or negligent use
- Use at establishments that are inconsistent with official DOD business
- Use at establishments that are not in alignment with applicable standards of conduct

- Using the GTCC when not on travel
- Non-PCS expenses related to personal, family, or household purposes
- Cash withdrawals/advances during non-travel periods
- Cash withdrawals/advances not related to official government travel
- Intentional failure to pay undisputed charges in a timely manner
- Cash withdrawals or advances taken more than three days prior to official travel.

The NRC can see EVERY CHARGE — or ATTEMPTED CHARGE — on your GTCC so please remain professional and only use the card for official travel! Refer to DODI 5154.31 Volume 4 for additional information.

Additional information on this program can be found here:

<https://www.travel.dod.mil/Programs/Government-Travel-Charge-Card/>

PHYSICAL FITNESS ASSESSMENT (PFA)

The PFA is a semi-annual requirement that measures physical readiness. It is completed in two segments: a Body Composition Assessment (BCA) and a Physical test. Participation in the Spring and Fall PFA is mandatory for all Sailors (unless waived IAW Navy guidelines).

Prior to completing the PFA, members must have a current PHA (Personal Health Assessment) and complete a PARFQ (Physical Activity Risk Factor Questionnaire). The PARFQ is available via the PRIMS (Physical Readiness Information Management System). (The PRIMS website is located on the BUPERS online website (<https://www.bol.navy.mil/>)).

Additional information on this program and useful tools for individual fitness and nutrition can be found here: <https://www.mynavyhr.navy.mil/Support-Services/21st-Century-Sailor/Physical-Readiness/>

SAFETY PROGRAM

Navy safety programs are managed by the ENTERPRISE SAFETY APPLICATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (ESAMS):

https://esams.cnmc.navy.mil/esams_gen_2/loginesams.aspx (CAC-enabled)

ESAMS is a website that provides safety training as well as a mechanism for reporting safety incidents into the Navy database. All Reservists are required to login to ESAMS annually (365-day rolling calendar), maintain an updated ESAMS profile (e.g., birthdate, supervisor, etc), and complete annual ESAMS training requirements.

DISASTER SUPPORT

Navy Reserve Sailors reside around the globe and are subject to various natural disasters and other crises that created a need to simply and effectively take accountability of all Navy personnel and dependents who may be affected. The Navy Family Accountability and Assessment System (NFAAS) is an online mustering system that helps ensure accountability of Navy personnel and dependents. This system is typically utilized after natural disasters or instability as it allows mustering to occur for impacted regions vice force-wide. Accordingly, NFAAS updates are required twice each year: <https://navyfamily.navy.mil>

Critical Administrative Check-In Items for the Third Drill Weekend:

1. Operations

Gain Defense Travel System (DTS) Profile

Verify DTS Access

Verify Navy Reserve Orders Writing System (NROWS) Access

Verify Government Travel Credit Card (GTCC) Issued

Verify DoD GTCC Statement of Understanding (SOU) (DD3120)

2. Command Fitness Leader

Gain into PRIMS II system

Verify PRT Date

3. Safety

Verify Enterprise Safety Application Management System (ESAMS) Access
(https://esams.cnic.navy.mil/esams_gen_2/loginesams.aspx)

4. NFAAS Coordinator

Verify Navy Family Accountability and Assessment System (NFAAS) Access (

RESOURCES AND BENEFITS

Reserve Sailors have many resources and benefits available to them and their dependents. Be aware that not all of the services available to drilling reservists are as robust as those provided to military members serving on active duty. However, most of those services are activated for Reserve Sailors while serving on active duty orders (such as ADT, ADSW, and Definite Recall) once they have surpassed a specified number of days and until the completion of those active duty orders.

PSYCHOLOGICAL HEALTH OUTREACH PROGRAM (PHOP)

In 2008, the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED) established the Navy and Marine Corps Reserve Psychological Health Outreach Program (PHOP) to ensure Reserve Sailors and their eligible family members have full access to appropriate psychological health care services, to increase resilience and to facilitate recovery. PHOP counselors provide support to all Navy Reserve Centers (NRC) and are embedded in 29 Reserve units across the nation. Navy Reserve Sailors and their families are eligible for FREE services from PHOP.

PHOP team members connect with Navy Reserve Sailors to provide support through resources and referrals on many common stressors including, but not limited to, relationship problems, deployment related issues, grief/loss, unemployment and underemployment, financial assistance, legal issues, and housing/homelessness. PHOP also supports NRC command leaders by providing consultation, facilitating psychoeducational briefings, and coordinating all-hands resiliency check-ins.

PHOP team members are available by phone at: 1-866-578-PHOP(7467). Follow PHOP on Facebook @BUMEDPHOP for more resources, information and program events.

NAVY RESERVE CHAPLAINS

Chaplains provide a wide spectrum of counsel, advice and pastoral care for service members and their families. They keep all communications in complete confidence unless you direct otherwise. They are naval officers and professional religious leaders, with an understanding of Navy life challenges, available to help you grow in your spiritual readiness.

The Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command Chaplain Office runs an around-the-clock on-call 100% confidential phone service for Reserve Force personnel and their families providing a safe and confidential way to receive counseling and spiritual services.

The CNRFC 24/7 chaplain line is available at (757) 322-5650.

NAVY311 is another resource to connect with a chaplain; support is available to all active and Reserve Sailors, Marines, Coast Guardsmen and their family members.

MILITARY FUNERAL HONORS

Military Funeral Honors benefit you two ways. First, as a Reserve service member, you're entitled to be buried with military honors. Our nation regards the memorializing of its military deceased as an honorable and sacred obligation. Second, you're eligible to participate in funeral honors ceremonies, earning you drill pay and points for retirement. Navy Military Funeral Honors is a total force mission – it takes active-duty and Reserve Sailors, members of the National Guard, and retirees.

Contact your NRC's funeral honors representative to learn how you can participate. For further clarification on eligibility, refer to DoD Instruction 1300.15 (Military Funeral Honors support). You can also visit the National Archives at <http://www.archives.gov/veterans>, or call (314) 801-0800 for more information.

SERVICEMEMBERS' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

SGLI provides you and your family, through Family Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (FSGLI), low-cost term life insurance coverage. Coverage is available in $50,000 increments up to a maximum of $400,000 for you, a maximum of $100,000 for your spouse and $10,000 for dependent children. Premiums are deducted from monthly pay automatically once enrollment has been completed.

To designate beneficiaries, or to reduce, decline or restore SGLI and FSGLI coverage, visit https://milconnect.dmdc.osd.mil/milconnect/?utm_source=mnp%20public > select "Sign In" > select "log in with your CAC" > go to "Benefits" and select "Life Insurance (SOES-SGLI Enrollment System)."

POST 9/11 GI BILL AND TRANSFERABILITY

As a Navy Reserve Sailor, you qualify for educational assistance, as long as you meet the requirements — six years of service and 90 days of aggregate active-duty service after Sept. 10, 2001. The qualifying active-duty periods are mobilizations, Active Duty for Training (ADT), Active Duty for Special Work (ADSW), and Active Duty for Operational Support (ADOS). You can transfer unused entitlements to your spouse or dependents, as long as they are enrolled in the Defense Eligibility Enrollment System and are eligible for identification card benefits. Using and transferring benefits isn't difficult, but there are a number of steps you must complete to ensure you're ready.

Step-by-step instructions for transferability of the Post 9/11 GI Bill can be found at: www.mynrh.navy.mil > Commands > CNRFC > N-codes > N1 > N1C > N1C2 (CAC required). Click Post 9/11 GI Bill Documents box. The file is titled One Page — Post 9-11 GI Bill Transferability Information Sheet.

You may also contact the post 9/11 hotline at 1-800-621-8853, or email cnrfc_post911GIBILL@navy.mil. More information on the Forever GI Bill can be found at: www.benefits.va.gov/gibill.

YELLOW RIBBON REINTEGRATION PROGRAM and RETURNING WARRIOR WORKSHOP

The Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Program (YRRP) is a DoD wide effort to promote the well-being of Reserve members, their families and communities, by connecting them with resources throughout the deployment cycle. YRRP hosts Deployment Readiness Training (DRT) events for Sailors departing for a mobilization and Returning Warrior Workshops (RWW) for Sailors as they return home.

While DRTs are a mandatory training stop for Reserve Sailors before leaving on mobilization, RWW's are a unique opportunity for returning mobilized Sailors. Designed to provide resources, encouragement and support for Sailors returning from deployment, RWW's are an all expenses paid weekend retreat held at a three-star (or higher) hotel.

Any Reserve Sailor recently returned from a mobilization or deployment is invited to attend an RWW with a guest of their choice. RWWs are hosted by one of the six Navy Reserve Region Readiness and Mobilization Commands (REDCOM) at a hotel away from military bases to ensure a safe and relaxed atmosphere for Sailors and guests to focus on the reintegration process. Sailors attend the event on ADT travel orders paid for by the YRRP. Attire for all attendees is civilian business casual. All lodging, meals and travel expenses are covered and include: dinner Friday night, three meals on Saturday and breakfast and lunch on Sunday. Travel is primarily by personal vehicle, and mileage is paid at the current government rate for up to 400 miles. The host REDCOM will work to pair returning Sailors with an RWW nearest to their residence.

During the RWW, trained facilitators lead Sailors and their guests through a series of presentations and table-top discussions that address post-combat stress and transition back to civilian life. Participants are afforded the opportunity to share their experiences in a safe environment with their peers. Symptoms such as sleep and appetite disturbances, decreased intimacy, job loss, financial difficulties, increased anger and/or frustration, alcohol or drug use, and other behaviors not present prior to deployment are safely discussed. The goal is for Sailors to learn that they are not alone and have resources available to help them move forward.

For more information, visit www.yellowribbon.mil.

INSPECTOR GENERAL

As a member of the armed services, you have an obligation to report incidents that undermine the integrity of the military. Commander, Navy Reserve Force (CNRF) Office of the Inspector General (IG) plays a critical role in helping the Navy Reserve maintain the highest level of integrity and public confidence. The IG inquires and reports on matters involving improper acts of fraud, waste, abuse, or mismanagement within the Navy Reserve Force.

Any individual who may have witnessed such improper acts should address these concerns first with the local chain of command. If the matter is unable to be resolved within the command, the IG office may be the next appropriate step to address the concern.

CNRF IG also conducts Command Assessments and serves as an Audit Liaison to ensure ethics and compliance while providing training and assistance to the Force.

Contact the CNRF IG at:

1915 Forrestal Dr. Norfolk, VA 23551

Toll Free hotline: (866) 237-2298, commercial hotline: (757) 322-5678, DSN: 262-5678, fax: (757) 444-7709

email: usn.norfolk.comnavresformorva.mbx.inspector-general@us.navy.mil (Flankspeed Hotline) or NWOR_NAVRESHOTLINE@navy.mil (Legacy Hotline).

For more information, visit the CNRF IG (N002) Sharepoint:

NAVY-MARINE CORPS RELIEF SOCIETY

NMCRS is a private non-profit charitable organization sponsored by the Navy and has been providing need-based financial assistance for Sailors, Marines and their families since 1904. Reserve Sailors are eligible for NMCRS services ONLY when on active-duty orders for 30 days or more, with certain exceptions. If you are experiencing financial hardship, NMCRS may be able to help. Talk with your command leadership and visit the NMCRS website at www.nmcrs.org.

FLEET AND FAMILY SUPPORT CENTER

FFSC is a one-stop shop for free parenting and life skill programs, financial counseling, deployment support, transition and employment assistance, relocation support, counseling and victim assistance, exceptional family member support, information and referral and many more programs to promote quality of life for military personnel and their families.

Specific eligibility requirements may be required for some services. Visit your nearest FFSC for further information or online at www.cnic.navy.mil/ffr/family_readiness/fleet_and_family_support_program.html.

MILITARY LODGING

Navy Reserve Sailors are eligible to use temporary military lodging facilities and resorts located across the U.S. and around the world. Military lodging facilities range from modern resorts to mountain cottages. There are limited-service hotels built specifically for families arriving at a new duty station as well as full-service recreational facilities, and some facilities even allow pets.

There are a number of sites to visit for Military Lodging options. Two recommendations are the Armed Forces Vacation Club and Military One Source.

Visit www.afvclub.com and www.militaryonesource.mil/recreation-travel-shopping/travel/recreational-lodging for more information. For Lodging options, visit www.dodlodging.net or www.navy-lodge.com.

VETERANS AFFAIRS HOME LOANS

Veterans Affairs, known as the VA, helps service members, veterans and eligible surviving spouses become homeowners. As part of their mission to serve you, they provide a loan guaranty benefit and other housing-related programs to help you buy, build, repair, retain or adapt a home for your own personal occupancy.

As a Reserve Sailor, you're not immediately eligible for a VA Loan. You must first meet the time in service requirements — completion of six years in the Reserve, or 181 active-duty days during peacetime or 90 days during war time. Buying a home is a complicated process, but the VA can help make it a little easier. Visit the VA website for more information: <https://www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/index.asp>.

COMMUNITY RECREATION and TICKETS AND TRAVEL

You can take advantage of local Community Recreation & Travel offices for discounted tickets to local attractions and vacations. Morale Welfare and Recreation's Tickets & Travel offer tickets to parks, museums, movie theaters, concerts and theme parks such as Walt Disney World, Sea World and Universal Studios.

For more information on discounts available to you at a local military installation recreation office (it may also be referred to as MWR or Leisure Travel Service), or if you're not located close to an installation, visit them online at www.navymwr.org.

SPACE-AVAILABLE TRAVEL

Space-A travel is available to you as a Reserve Sailor. Traveling by military aircraft can save you a tremendous amount of money if you're flexible — military flights can be unpredictable and subject to delays and cancellations. You will need to be ready both financially and emotionally to change plans at a moment's notice, but for many Space-A passengers, traveling to places like Hawaii, Alaska, Germany, Italy or Japan at little or no cost is worth the effort.

You can find locations DoD-controlled flights leave from at <http://spacea.net/misc-space-links>. Flight schedules can be found at www.spacea.net/social.

EMPLOYER SUPPORT OF THE GUARD AND RESERVE

Being a Navy Reserve Sailor isn't an easy job — you're required to complete all of your military requirements while balancing work and family. It's not easy for employers either — knowing they might lose a great employee for an extended period of time. To help, the military uses ESGR as a resource to inform and educate service members and their civilian employers about the rights and responsibilities of all parties affected by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).

Since USERRA is law, there are parts of the legislation protecting both the employee and the employer. To be eligible for protection under USERRA after uniformed military service, service members must report back to work or apply for reemployment within the following guidelines.

- 1-30 days of service: Report next scheduled work day
- 31-180 days of service: Apply 14 days after completion of service
- 181+ days of service: Apply within 90 days of completion of service

Employers are required to provide the following to returning employees, where applicable:

- Reinstatement of health insurance
- Prompt reinstatement into job following military service
- Training or retraining of job skills
- Accumulation of seniority, including pension benefits
- Protection against discrimination

If the employee is absent from a position of civilian employment by reason of service in the uniformed services, he or she is eligible for reemployment under USERRA by meeting the following.

- Employer had advance notice of the employee's service
- Employee returns to work in accordance with USERRA guidelines
- The employee has not been separated with a disqualifying discharge or under other than honorable conditions

For more information or to get in touch with an ESGR representative who can assist you, visit: <https://www.esgr.mil/> or contact their customer support line: <https://www.esgr.mil/About-ESGR/Contact>

FREEDOM AWARD

The Secretary of Defense established the Freedom Award in 1996 as a way to recognize civilian employers who go above and beyond and to ensure their employees are well-taken care of.

Nominations for the Freedom Award must come from a Guard or Reserve service member employed by the organization they are nominating. Family members can also submit nominations on behalf of the service member. Employers from all sectors of employment are encouraged for nomination (local, state and federal agencies are eligible). To nominate your employer, visit the Freedom Award page at www.freedomaward.mil.

NAVY EMPLOYER RECOGNITION EVENT

Annual Navy Employer Recognition Events (NERE) recognize civilian employers who provide outstanding support to Reserve Sailors in their organizations. If your employer fits that description, consider nominating your leadership to attend a NERE event. The annual event rotates between San Diego, CA and Norfolk, VA.

NERE's are all-day events including tours of Navy ships, aircraft and facilities. Transportation and lunch is provided. NEREs conclude with a dinner reception with the Chief of Navy Reserve and Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command, as well as other flag officers. E-mail nominations must include:

- Name of company or organization
- Name and title of leader you wish to highlight
- Mailing address of employer
- E-mail address of leader (or administrative assistant, if applicable)
- Approximate number of employees in organization
- Approximate number of Reserve/Guard employees (if known)
- Your name and contact information
- Description of why your employer should be selected to attend NERE

The NERE nomination portal will be open from Nov. 1, 2022-Jan. 31, 2023. This year's event will be held in San Diego, CA in June 2023. Visit the nomination portal at:

https://private.navyreserve.navy.mil/OCNR/Strategic_Plans_and_Policy/Pages/nere.aspx
