

A silhouette of a person in a uniform, possibly a sailor or a pilot, stands on the left side of the frame, looking out over a body of water at a sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow that reflects on the water. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

2011 Calendar

Letter from the Editor

Readers,

The closing out of a great Navy Reserve year is almost upon us. Our force has done so much to be proud of during 2010. At any time during 2010, the Navy Reserve had more than 6,000 Reservists mobilized in support of overseas contingency operations. That is impressive to say the least. The Navy Reserve is flexible, responsive and serves across a wide spectrum of operations. The work you do really enhances the Navy total force.

This month's issue of TNR is our annual calendar edition. I hope you find it to be a useful tool throughout 2011. We have included important historical events for you to recognize, and have listed fitness report, evaluation and counseling due dates to help you stay current. This year we have also listed important focus areas for the Navy Reserve. Such as enabling the continuum of service; honoring our people and providing a cost-effective force. Please look them over and think about how you and your unit impact these areas. Then, let the staff at TNR know about the work you do in relation to these areas of focus. We look forward to telling your stories to your shipmates, families and employers.

This month the Navy Reserve is working to show our families how much we appreciate what they do for their Sailor. Without support from our families we wouldn't be the great force we are today. Moms, dads, kids, wives, husbands--thank you for what you do for us. As you celebrate the holidays this month, tell your family members how much you appreciate their continued support. But don't stop at just your family, this is a great time make a phone call to the families who have a loved one serving away from home. If you are having holiday celebrations during or after a drill, please invite the families of your shipmates serving overseas. While they may not always be able to accept the invitation, just knowing they are in your thoughts, especially during the holiday season, means a lot to them.

Have a great 2011 everyone.

CONTINUUM OF SERVICE – We give Sailors options that allow them to achieve a true life/work balance while they “Stay Navy” and continue contributing to our warfighting effectiveness. Our contributions to national security are enabled by policies, processes, and administrative systems that are transparent and seamless, making it easy for Sailors and their families to serve.

EMPLOYER OF CHOICE -- We are sought by the Nation’s best for a career of service. We are the Force that others want to join and our diversity reflects the face of the nation. We provide life-long learning and development We are committed to developing warriors capable of leading in our nation’s defense.

SERVICE MATTERS – Our actions and resources are fully aligned to achieve this vision. We are committed to supporting the Fleet and Combatant Commands, ready and fully integrated. We value the contributions of each and every reservist, recognizing service can and does vary from a few days per year to full-time service.

HONORING OUR PEOPLE, THEIR FAMILIES AND THEIR EMPLOYERS – Within our lifelines we provide support to our Sailors, individually and proactively. We stand ready to assist service members’ families, whenever and wherever they need our help. And finally, we recognize, respect, and honor the civilian employers whose support enables our Navy Reservists to serve our Navy and our Nation. We honor their service by both our actions and words.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

PHOTO SUBMISSIONS

Due 5th of the month. High-resolution 300 dpi photos. Set camera on the highest setting (TIFF, FINE and/or HQ). Shoot photos of action supporting the story. Posed shots or “grip-n-grins” are the least desirable. If the story is about people receiving awards, show us what they do that garnered said award. Send us the original image. Do NOT tinker with it in Photoshop™ or other image-editing software. We will edit it to fit into our page layout requirements. Include cutline information identifying the subjects and what they’re doing in the photo. Also credit the photographer.

STORY SUBMISSIONS

Due 5th of the month. Monthly columns: at least 500 words. More is okay, we’ll edit it. Feature stories: at least 600-700 words and need supporting photos. Feature-based stories will compel the reader to read the entire story. We do typically publish straight-news stories written in inverted pyramid newspaper style.
