

Greeting Shipmates!

Over the next couple of Weekly's we will cover each line of the Navy Ethos. This week we review the sixth line.

"We defend our Nation and prevail in the face of adversity with strength, determination, and dignity."

Part of my job is to go out and talk to Sailors and find out their concerns and bring those concerns and issues back here to discuss with CNR, because after all, we work for you. As a result of those trips, I get to interact and observe Sailors in action and I find that no matter the location, our Sailors are doing some amazing things. Our Sailors are diligent in their duties, whether they are at a squadron, ship or NOSC; they are focused, energized and eager to do the work assigned to them. They are also very humble, and often say to me, "I'm just doing my job". Individually, they may think they are not making much of difference, but I beg to differ. Because of their determination in doing their job, no matter how small or big it is, they make our Nation strong. In the last ten years we have had over 63,000 Navy Reservist answer the call to defend our Nation as Individual Augmentee's. Our Sailors and families have endured many hardships, and while some challenges have been met, we may have more to face and I have no doubt that we will face them with the same dignity and resolve as we have done in the past. After all, that is who we are and why we can say that we are, "Ready Now. Anytime, Anywhere".
